Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-9,11-17,19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hasan [US 5,724,658].

Regarding claim 1, Hasan discloses a method of call routing to wireless roamers in mobile telecommunications network. Hasan further discloses a method of:

- receiving a location update request from a guest user within a service area of the enterprise network (see summary and col. 3, lines 33-38);
- allocating a guest number to the guest user (see col. 3, lines 39-40);
- registering the guest user for service in the enterprise network and providing wireless services to the guest user (see summary, col. 3, lines 41-52 and Fig.3)

Regarding claim 2, Hasan further discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network emulating a Mobile Switching Center (MSC) in a Public Land Mobile Network (PLMN). See Fig. 3 and col. 3, lines 1-7.

Regarding claim 3, Hasan further discloses a method comprising the step of registering the guest user with a Home Location Register (HLR) of a PLMN. See Col. 3, lines 33-38.

Regarding claim 4, Hasan discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network authenticating the guest user with an HLR, for service by the enterprise network. See col. 3, lines 41-52

Regarding claims 5,6, Hasan discloses a method further comprising the step of the enterprise network emulating a Mobile Switching Center (MSC) with respect to the guest user and treating the guest user as if roaming from the enterprise network to an MSC of the PLMN. See summary, Fig. 3 and col. 3, lines 1-7.

Regarding claim 7, Hasan discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network de-registering the guest user. See summary and col. 3, lines 53-60.

Regarding claim 8, Hasan further discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network maintaining a pool of guest numbers. See summary and col. 3, lines 33-52.

Regarding claim 9, Hasan further discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network de-allocating the guest number by returning it to a pool of guest numbers. See summary and col. 3, lines 53-60.

Regarding claim 11, Hasan further discloses a method further comprising the step of the enterprise network providing wireless service to an enterprise user. See summary and Fig. 3.

Regarding claim 12, Hasan discloses a method of providing service to a guest user within a wireless telecommunication enterprise network, comprising the steps of:

- emulating a Mobile Switching Center (MSC) in a Public Land Mobile Network (PLMN); see Fig.3 and col.3, lines 1-7;
- maintaining a pool of guest numbers; see summary and col. 3, lines 33-52;
- receiving a location update request from a guest user; see summary and col. 3, lines 33-38;
- allocating a guest number to the guest user; see col. 3, lines 39-40;
- registering the guest user for service in the enterprise network; and the wireless telecommunication enterprise network providing wireless service to the guest user; See Col. 3, lines 33-38

Regarding claim 13, Hasan discloses a method further comprising the step of registering the guest user with a Home Location Register (HLR) of a PLMN. See summary and col. 3, lines 33-38.

Regarding claim 14, Hasan discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network authenticating the guest user with an HLR, for service by the enterprise network. See col. 3, lines 41-52.

Art Unit: 2684

Regarding claim 15, Hasan discloses a method further comprising the step of the enterprise network treating the guest user as if roaming from the enterprise network to an MSC of the PLMN. See summary, Fig. 3 and col. 3, lines 1-7.

Regarding claim 16, Hasan discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network de-registering the guest user. See summary and col. 3, lines 53-60.

Regarding claim 17, Hasan further discloses a method comprising the step of the enterprise network de-allocating the guest number by returning it to a pool of guest numbers. See summary and col. 3, lines 53-60.

Regarding claim 19, Hasan further discloses a method further comprising the step of the enterprise network providing wireless service to an enterprise user. See summary and Fig. 3.

3. Claims 20-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Patel [US 6,314,284].

Regarding claim 20, Patel discloses a method and system for providing service transparency for mobile calls within a H.323 system. Patel further discloses:

- a Public Land Mobile Network (PLMN) supporting wireless service for a plurality of wireless terminals, the PLMN including at least one Mobile Switching Center (MSC) for registration of wireless terminals; See summary and Fig. 2

Art Unit: 2684

- an enterprise network supporting service for a plurality of enterprise terminals within a service area of the enterprise network, the enterprise network including means for supporting access by a wireless terminal to services of the enterprise network; See summary and Fig. 3,4 and col. 5, lines 5-65
- and a wireless terminal native to the PLMN and guest to the enterprise network wherein the enterprise network further comprises means for allocating a guest number to the wireless terminal for use by the wireless terminal within the service area of the enterprise network. See summary and col. 5, lines 5-65.

Regarding claims 21 and 22, Patel further discloses a method comprising means for registering and authenticating the guest terminal with a Home Location Register (HLR) of the PLMN. See summary and col. 6, lines 15-51.

Regarding claim 23, Patel discloses the enterprise network further comprises an H.323 network. See Figs 2-4

Regarding claim 24, Patel further discloses the system wherein the PLMN further comprises a Global System for Mobile communications (GSM) network. See col. 5, lines 18-65.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 10,18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hasan [US 5,724,658] in view of Mukherjee [WO 00/39965].

Regarding claims 10,18, Hasan discloses all the limitations as claimed. However he is silent to disclose a method comprising the step of the enterprise network using H.323 signaling for communication among elements of the enterprise network.

Mukherjee teaches a method comprising the step of the enterprise network using H.323 signaling, which is well known in the art, for communication among elements of the enterprise network. See summary of invention.

Therefore it would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use H.323 signaling as a design choice.

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed 1/16/04 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows:

Art Unit: 2684

Claims 1,12,17,20 recite, “-the guest number is an enterprise generated identification number associated with the wireless terminal's International Mobile Subscriber Identity (IMSI

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Therefore the rejection of claims 1-24 discussed above is considered proper.

Conclusion

2. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
